School Ethos

Hurworth Primary School is an inclusive school where we focus on the well-being and progress of every child and where all members of our community are of equal worth. The Equality Act 2010 provides a framework to support our commitment to valuing diversity, tackling discrimination, promoting equality and fostering good relationships between people. It also ensures that we continue to tackle issues of disadvantage and underachievement of different groups.

We must, under the general duty of public sector equality duty, in the exercise of our functions, have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited under the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
- Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

This will apply to all children, staff and others using the facilities. We will give relevant and proportionate consideration to the public sector equality duty.

The protected characteristics for the schools provisions are:

- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation
- Age (not applicable to children)
- Marriage and Civil Partnerships (not applicable children)

Age and marriage and civil partnership are NOT protected characteristics for the schools provisions for children.

Legal framework

There are a number of statutory duties that must be met by every school in line with legislation from the Equality Act 2010.

We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We recognise these duties are essential to reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Public Sector Equality Duties 2010.

The action plan at the end of this Equality Plan outlines the actions Hurworth Primary School will take to meet its duties.

Further information on the Equality Act 2010 and advice for schools, can be seen here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/equality-act-2010-advice-for-schools>

Eliminating discrimination

We believe that a greater level of success from children and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating a prejudice-free environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school. This environment will be achieved by:

- being respectful
- always treating all members of the school community fairly
- developing an understanding of diversity and the benefits it can have
- adopting an inclusive attitude
- adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all
- encouraging compassion and open-mindedness

We are committed to having a balanced and fair curriculum. We believe that our children should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that children learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in an age-appropriate way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes.

Tackling discrimination

Harassment on account of race, gender, disability or sexual orientation is unacceptable and is not tolerated within the school environment.

All staff are expected to deal with any discriminatory incidents that may occur. They are expected to know how to identify and challenge prejudice and stereotyping; and to support the full range of diverse needs according to a pupil's individual circumstances.

Racist and homophobic incidents and other incidents of harassment or bullying by children are dealt with by the member of staff present, escalating to a senior leader / Head Teacher where necessary. All incidents are reported to the Head Teacher and racist incidents are reported to the Local Governing Body and Local Authority on a termly basis. 'Cause for Concern logs' are completed for incidents of bullying, and 'Racist Incident Logs' are completed for racist incidents using our Child Protection Online Management System (CPOMS).

Incidents are dealt with in the following way:

For incidents of racist and homophobic incidents and other incidents of harassment or bullying by a member of staff, school will follow Lingfield Education Trust's disciplinary procedures.

Advancing equality of opportunity

We will have due regard to advancing equality of opportunity including making serious consideration of the need to:

- remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic
- take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a protected characteristics that are different from the needs of persons who do not share it
- encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low

We will take into account the six Brown principles of 'due regard':

- awareness – all staff know and understand what the law requires
- timeliness – implications considered before they are implemented
- rigour – open-minded and rigorous analysis, including parent/pupil voice
- non-delegation – the PSED cannot be delegated
- continuous – ongoing all academic year
- record-keeping – keep notes and records of decisions & meetings

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty, the school will:

- publish attainment data each academic year showing how children with different characteristics are performing
- analyse the above data to determine strengths and areas for improvement, implement actions in response and publish this information

- make evidence available identifying improvements for specific groups
- publish further data about any issues associated with particular protected characteristics, identifying any issues which could affect our own children

We welcome the opportunity to be transparent and accountable. To this end we fulfil the specific duties of the Act by:

- publishing our equality information
- publishing our equality objectives

We will publish this information on our website and aim to make the information accessible and easy to read.

Fostering good relations

The school aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by:

- promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding of differences through our broad and balanced curriculum and enrichment activities
- holding assemblies dealing with relevant issues. Children are encouraged to take a lead in such assemblies and we also invite external speakers to contribute when appropriate
- ensuring that Hurworth Primary School is seen as a community school by inviting representatives of groups and organisations from within our diverse community to speak to children and staff, as well as organising school trips and activities based around the local area and beyond
- encouraging and implementing initiatives to promote good relationships between different groups of children within the school and Trust. For example, our school council has representatives from different year groups and is formed of children from a range of backgrounds and needs. Our Pupil Ambassador initiative brings together groups of children from across the Trust to share ideas and interests
- encouraging all children to participate in the school's extracurricular activities
- regularly consulting with children and their parents/carers in order to give them a voice, listen to areas of concern and acting on suggestions when appropriate
